

Call for Student Artwork and Videos

BUILDING A SUSTAINABLE
FUTURE TOGETHER

9th Annual

Governor's Native American Summit

July 30 and 31, 2014

Utah Valley University
Orem, Utah

Calling All Student Artists and Videographers!

Utah Division of Indian Affairs is sending a call for student artwork and videos from in grades 1st through 12th in Utah, to showcase at this year's Governor's Native American Summit.

Objective: Students will create a piece capturing the essence of their Native American cultural heritage and/or language through this year's theme, "Building a Sustainable Future Together."

Student Grade Level Categories:

- A) 1st-3rd grade, B) 4th-6th grade,
C) 7-8th grade, D) 9th-12th grade

Prizes for each category:

1st, 2nd, and 3rd Places

Participation Requirements:

Student attends a Utah school
Student is Native American

Deadline: ~~Monday, June 30, 2014~~

For more information, pick up an application packet from your Title VII Coordinator, Tribal Education Director, your School Teacher OR contact Rozanna at (801) 715-6703, rbenally-sagg@utah.gov.

DEADLINE EXTENDED!

Monday, July 14, 2014

Utah Division of Indian Affairs

Utah Department of Heritage & Arts